DEFENDANT MAX O. DAY'S AFFIDAVIT IN SUPPORT OF THE JURISDICTIONAL DEFENDANTS' SUPPLEMENTAL BRIEF IN OPPOSITION TO PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION

Action Filed: April 9, 2024
Hearing: April 29, 2024
Trial Date: N/A

2 BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared Max O. Day, and
3 being duly sworn upon his oath by me, deposed and stated as follows:

4 1. "My name is Max O. Day I am over eighteen (18) years of age. I am of sound mind and 5 fully capable to make this Business Record Affidavit. The facts set forth herein are based on my personal knowledge and are true and correct. I am competent to testify to the facts herein.

6 2. "I was the Chief Growth & Technology Consultant of Yax Ecommerce, LLC, formerly 7 known as Wealth Assistants, LLC ("Wealth Assistants").

8 3. "I am familiar with the matters in controversy in the litigation against Defendants Ryan
9 Carroll; Max K. Day; Michael Day, Wealth Assistants; WA Distribution LLC; Precision Trading Group, LLC, and myself (collectively, the "Jurisdictional Defendants") and others in the United 10 States District Court for the Central District of California ("CDCA") (herein referred to as the "Hough Litigation").

11 4. "I submit this affidavit in support of the Jurisdictional Defendants' Supplemental Brief in 12 Opposition to the Plaintiffs' Application for a Temporary Restraining Order and Order to Show Cause Regarding a Preliminary Injunction ("Plaintiffs' Application") filed in the CDCA in the 13 Hough Litigation.

14 5. "I began my consulting, assuming the role of Growth Consultant for Wealth Assistants, back 15 in August 2022. Drawing from my background, I focused on providing comprehensive strategies, solutions, and systems to help navigate and alleviate organizational constraints, with the aim of 16 fostering a smoother trajectory for growth. Despite my title, I was only an independent contractor
17 for Wealth Assistants, not an employee, owner, manager or stakeholder.

18 6. I have never had any access to the company's funds, financial records, bank accounts, or 19 other assets, beyond the occasional performance report provided by Ryan Carroll, Max K. Day, and other individuals who were running the company. Any assumption to the contrary is wholly 20 inaccurate.

21 7. It's important to clarify that, despite sharing a name with one of the defendants (Max K.
22 Day), I have never had any ownership stake, equity, or decision-making authority within the company. Any assumption to the contrary is wholly inaccurate.

23 8. In fact, I am currently owed a substantial sum—exceeding $50,000—for services rendered to Wealth Assistants as an independent contractor.

24 9. The financial strain resulting from the Hough litigation and the resulting Temporary 25 Restraining Order ("TRO") issued by the CDCA has taken a toll on both my family and my business. False and defamatory information circulating online, largely due to mistaken identity 26 (due to the shared name with Defendant Max K. Day), has further exacerbated our challenges. My consulting business has suffered, as prospective clients have been deterred by these baseless 27 allegations.

1 10. On a personal level, my family and I face significant financial obligations, including
2 supporting our eldest child's education at the University of Texas - McCombs Business School.
3 With monthly expenses, educational costs, and other financial commitments looming large, the 4 $9,000 that I would be permitted to spend pursuant to Plaintiffs' Application and proposed preliminary injunction would barely scratch the surface of our needs, which amount closer to $13,000 monthly.

5 11. I've dedicated myself to assisting Wealth Assistants and its clients in resolving their 6 challenges, and I urge for a resolution to this matter. I am prepared to provide full transparency 7 regarding my financial affairs to demonstrate that I have received no assets beyond what was agreed upon in our consulting contract and should be released from this proceeding.

8 FURTHER AFFIANT SAYETH NOT.
